Contents of Volume 3

No. 1, September 1984

A simple modified procedure for preparing microbial cells for scanning electron microscopy (JMM 00075)
R. J. Seviour, L. M. Pethica and S. McClure (Bendigo, Victoria, Australia) 1
The use of disposable gas generating kits for the growth of hydrogen-oxidizing bacteria and the determination of hydrogen autotrophy (JMM 00076)
L. I. Sly (Brisbane, Queensland, Australia) 7
A simple method for mass culturing entomopathogenic Hypohomycete fungi (JMM 00077)
M. S. Goettel (Edmonton, Alberta, Canada) 15
Procedures for the quantitative analysis of microbial N-dealkylation systems by gas-liquid chromatography (JMM 00078)
G. J. Sewell, C. J. Soper and R. T. Parfitt (Bath, England) 21
Protoplast fusion in Aspergillus: selection of interspecific heterokaryons using antifungal inhibitors (JMM 00079)
R. E. Bradshaw and J. F. Peberdy (Nottingham, England) 27
A microcomputer program for the computation of free energy of the secondary structure of RNA oligomers by Ninio's rules (JMM 00080)
M. T. MacDonell and R. R. Colwell (College Park, MD, USA) 33
A yeast bioassay for T-2 toxin (JMM 00081)
K. T. Schappert and G. G. Khachatourians (Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada) 43
Measure of microbial turnover of carbon in anoxic freshwater sediments: cautionary comments (JMM 00084)
J. G. Jones and B. M. Simon (Ambleside, Cumbria, England) 47
Corrigenda 57
Errata 59

No. 2, December 1984

A simple computer-based video image analysis system and potential applications to microbiology (JMM 00082)
C. I. Mayfield (Waterloo, Ontario, Canada) 61
A convenient procedure for the preparation of highly purified parasporal crystals of Bacillus thuringiensis (JMM 00083)
J. Mahillon and J. Delcour (Louvain, Belgium) 69
Injection principles in capillary gas chromatographic analysis of bacterial fatty acids (JMM 00085)
L. Larsson and G. Odham (Lund, Sweden) 77
An immunoblotting technique for the detection of bound and secreted bacterial Fc receptors (JMM 00086)
M. Yarnall, K. J. Reis, E. M. Ayoub and M. D. P. Boyle (Gainesville, FL, USA) 83
Comparison between radiometric and proportional methodologies in susceptibility testing of mycobacteria other than tubercle bacilli (MOTT) (JMM 00088)
A. von Graevenitz, E. Koch and M. Salfinger (Zurich, Switzerland) 95

The use of ^{14}C-labeled bacteria as a tracer of ingestion and metabolism of bacterial biomass by microbial grazers (JMM 00087)
G. T. Taylor and C. W. Sullivan (Los Angeles, CA, USA) 101

No. 3/4, April 1985

Measurement and significance of ATP and adenine nucleotide pool turnover in microbial cells and environmental samples (JMM 00089)
D. M. Karl and P. Bossard (Honolulu, HI, USA) 125
The preparation of antisera to the T-proteins of Lancefield group C and group G streptococci (JMM 00090)
A. Efstratiou (London, England) 141
An improved method to detect acetylene-reducing activity in Bacillus strains (JMM 00091)
M. L. Mollica, J. D. van Elsas and E. G. C. Penido (Rio de Janeiro, Brazil) 147
Biochemical fingerprinting of Escherichia coli: a simple method for epidemiological investigations (JMM 00092)
I. Kühn (Stockholm, Sweden) 159
Differential sensitivity to mutagens by Photobacterium phosphoreum (JMM 00093)
I. E. Yates (Athens, GA, USA) 171
Cytotoxicity and mutagenicity of aflatoxins B_1, B_2, G_1 and G_2 in Photobacterium phosphoreum (JMM 00094)
I. E. Yates (Athens, GA, USA) 181
Evaluation of procedures to desorb bacteria from granular activated carbon (JMM 00095)
A. K. Camper, M. W. LeChevallier, S. C. Broadaway and G. A. McFeters (Bozeman, MT, USA) . 187
A simple method for making microelectrodes to measure oxygen (JMM 00096)
J. P. Coombs and A. C. Peters (Cardiff, Wales) 199
Sulfate analysis in pore water by radio-ion chromatography employing 5-sulfoisophthalic acid as a novel eluent (JMM 00097)
C. A. Hordijk and T. E. Cappenberg (Nieuwersluis, The Netherlands) 205
A method for detecting methylotrophic bacteria on solid surfaces (JMM 00098)
W. A. Corpe (New York, NY, USA) 215
Quantitation of the rate of ingestion of Escherichia coli by human polymorphonuclear neutrophils using [^3H]uracil (JMM 00099)
P. S. Cohen, R. Solf, J. Suter and K. Vosbeck (Basel, Switzerland) 223
Precision and sensitivity of the measurement of ^{15}N enrichment in D-alanine from bacterial cell walls using positive/negative ion mass spectrometry (JMM 00100)
A. Tunlid, G. Odham, R. H. Findlay and D. C. White (Lund, Sweden and Tallahassee, FL, USA) 237
Dot matrix analysis of nucleic acid sequences: an interactive microcomputer program (JMM 00101)
M. T. MacDonell and R. R. Colwell (College Park, MD, USA) 247
Announcements 255

No. 5/6, May 1985

Bacterial plasmid isolation and purification (JMM 00102)
J. T. Trevors (Guelph, Ontario, Canada) 259
Sedimentation field flow fractionation of bacterial cell wall fragments (JMM 00103)
A. Fox, L. E. Schallinger and J. J. Kirkland (Columbia, SC and Wilmington, DE, USA) 273
A simple technique for random spore analysis of yeasts using nystatin (JMM 00104)
I. A. Samsonova, F. Böttcher, D. Steinwehr and B. Schilowa (Greifswald, GDR) 283
A comparison of procedures for the separation of aquatic bacteria from sediments for subsequent direct enumeration (JMM 00105)
J. A. McDaniel and D. B. Capone (Stony Brook, NY, USA) 291

An evaluation of five techniques used to detect deoxyribonuclease production by bacteria (JMM 00106)
J. R. Waller, S. L. Hodel and D. B. Almquist (Grand Forks, ND and McAllen, TX, USA) 303
Determination of the double bond position and geometry in monoenoic fatty acids from complex microbial and environmental samples by capillary GC-MS of their Diels-Alder adducts (JMM 00107)
P. D. Nichols, P. M. Shaw and R. B. Johns (Parkeville, Victoria, Australia) 311
A convenient method for measuring rates of phospholipid synthesis in seawater and sediments: its relevance to the determination of bacterial productivity and the disturbance artifacts introduced by measurements (JMM 00108)
D. J. W. Moriarty, D. C. White and T. J. Wassenberg (Cleveland, Queensland, Australia and Tallahassee, FL, USA) 321
Determination of microbial fatty acid profiles at femtomolar levels in human urine and the initial marine microfouling community by capillary gas chromatography-chemical ionization mass spectrometry with negative ion detection (JMM 00109)
G. Odham, A. Tunlid, G. Westerdahl, L. Larsson, J. B. Guckert and D. C. White (Lund, Sweden and Tallahassee, FL, USA) 331
A rapid method for the preparation of Blastomyces dermatitidis conidia (JMM 00110)
A. M. Sugar and K. G. Field (Boston, MA, USA) 345
A filtration method for harvesting Mycoplasma pneumoniae cells (JMM 00111)
R. Räty, M. Karvonen and M. Kleemola (Helsinki, Finland) 349
